

Florida Family Consignment LLC

Vendor Agreement

Vendor agrees to have their vendor space occupied at all times with their product. Florida Family Consignment LLC will not be responsible for any product left unattended. Vendor can choose to have their space open the entire sale (including pre-sale hours).

Vendor shall hold harmless and make no claims for damage, loss, theft, or pricing discrepancies against Florida Family Consignment LLC, its owners, volunteers, employees, event insurer, or establishment where the sales event is held, for any property brought to sale.

Vendor must provide their own receipts and change for all their transactions.

Florida Family Consignment LLC reserves the right to reject any vendor application that does not meet the qualifications, guidelines and requirements as specified on our website.

The CPSIA was signed into law on August 14, 2008; it became unlawful to sell recalled products. Vendors are responsible for checking the CPSC Web site (www.cpsc.gov) to ensure all products brought to the sale are not on this list. The selling of recalled products also could carry civil and/or criminal penalties for the vendor. Vendor assumes all responsibility regarding recalled items.

Vendor agrees that any merchandise not picked up by Sunday September 15th at 6pm, will become property of Florida Family Consignment LLC and donated to local charities.

Vendor assumes all risk regarding items placed on sale, and releases Florida Family Consignment LLC, its owners, volunteers, employees, event insurer, or establishment where the sales event is held, shall be released from liability and all claims for personal injury resulting in participating in the Florida Family Consignment LLC sale.

X _____
Signature

Date

Print Name

Vendor Name / Type

Phone Number

E-Mail Address

Website

FaceBook Page

*If you would like to have your logo with a link to your website added to the FFC website for the Spring 2017 Event, please e-mail us this information to info@floridafamilyconsignment.com